

INTRODUCTION

The Order of Service of marriage, according to the Mar Thoma Rite, is a blend of rich biblical traditions and teachings, practices of the Early Church in Palestine and Syria and the customs of South India. However, the wedding service is far more than a contract between two individuals. The service focuses on the sacramental character of God, bringing together man and woman as husband and wife.

The prayers and chants are rooted in the Bible, drawing on many biblical references and examples. The service underlines the significance of the family in God's plan, recognizing it as a divinely blessed institution. It sets the particular wedding within the framework of the tradition and teaching of the Bible.

The Order of Service consists of two parts:

1. The Engagement: The Blessing of the Rings

The first part of the ceremony is the service of the betrothal. The officiating Minister blesses the rings which are put on the fourth finger of the right hands of the Bride and the Bridegroom on behalf of the church as a blessing given by God to remain in their life always. The Ring is the symbol of the mutual responsibility of the couple to live together as husband and wife.

2. Holy Matrimony: The Crowning Ceremony

In the second part of the ceremony, the blessings of the Almighty are invoked on the Bride and the Bridegroom who are considered as "King" and "Queen". It symbolizes the bestowal of the crown of righteousness upon the couple. This is also an invocation of divine love upon the couple so that they may serve each other with a self-sacrificing spirit. A gold chain with a cross pendant is used for the crowning. The most important part of the service is the reading of the Gospel, before which the minister joins together the right hands of the Bride and the Bridegroom. The reading of the Gospel symbolizes Christ's affirmation of the sanctity of the marriage bond. This reading is followed by the tying of the Minnu, a small gold pendant shaped as a stylized heart with a cross on it, and the adornment of the Manthrakodi (bridal sari). The Minnu is tied around the neck of the Bride by the Bridegroom with seven strands of thread from the Manthrakodi. This is a symbol of the marriage bond. Then the Manthrakodi is placed on the Bride's head. This is the moment when she becomes a member of the husband's family. To symbolize this event, a woman from the family of the bridegroom takes the place of the Maids of Honor in a welcome gesture.

HOLY MATRIMONY

PART I - THE ENGAGEMENT

Dearly Beloved in Christ,

Christian marriage is instituted by God, and therefore, is holy and sacramental. You have come in the presence of God to be united in Holy Matrimony. The Lord has guided you until now and so you ought to remember His ways and praise His holy name.

This service would be more blessed and meaningful, if you take part in it with the experience of the joy of forgiveness. Jesus Christ is the true Bridegroom and the Church is the Bride. He loved the Church and gave Himself for her. We remember this ideal in the marriage service for it is this model of mutual love, commitment and total faithfulness that is commended in your married life. Let us pray together for the grace of God, so that through this married life, you may experience more the love of God, as revealed at the Cross and you may enter into a new fellowship with the Lord. May our Lord give you grace to lead an authentic Christian family life until the last.

BLESSING

P: You are blessed by the Lord who created heaven and earth. May the Lord bless and sanctify all of you who have attended this divine service with us.

May ☩ God the Father the Son and the Holy Spirit hear and accept our weak and inadequate prayers before His throne of Grace.

C: Amen.

The Marriage Register is signed by the wedded couple and Offertory of Thanks giving is given.

The Choir can sing a song of blessing.

May God's mercy and blessing be upon the priests, the deacons, the believers, the bride and bridegroom, the guests and the hosts. May the right hand of our Lord Jesus Christ be upon us all forever.

C: Amen.

EXHORTATION TO ALL

P: Once again believers know that this commandment is to you all, that each husband among you should always keep in mind the right relationship he owes his wife, for she has left all her kindred to join her husband. Therefore, he must love and cherish her. He must clothe her even if he has to go naked, feed her even if he has to go hungry, and give her drink even if he is thirsty.

Each wife must also behave towards her husband in the same manner as he does towards her and honor him accordingly. She must treat him with love and affection in all things. May the grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be upon you all forever.

C: Amen.

EXHORTATION TO THE BRIDE AND GROOM

P: God has united you as husband and wife from this day. You are no longer two, but one. Christian family life is a great privilege and responsibility. So love one another, respect each other, be tolerant, be forgiving, hate evil, hold on to all that is good, be patient in tribulation, be constant in family prayer, be diligent in studying the Word of God, practice charity and hospitality, do always what is noble in the sight of all, be active participants in corporate worship and regular partakers of Holy Communion. May God help you to rejoice in such a blessed Christian family life.

Remember that you are stewards of God in wealth, time and talents.

Therefore, set apart a portion of your income for the needy and the poor and for the mission of the Church. When you are blessed with children, nurture them in the love of God.

May Almighty God help you to rejoice in such a blessed Christian family life.

Opening song by the Choir

KAUMA (Prayer of Adoration)

P: Glory be to the Father and to the Son and to the Holy Spirit.

C: As it was in the beginning, is now and ever shall be. Amen.

P: Holy, Holy, Holy Lord God Almighty! Heaven and earth are full of your glory. Hosanna in the highest.

C: Blessed is He who has come and is to come again in the name of the Lord. Hosanna in the highest.

P: *Holy art Thou, O God.

C: *Holy art Thou, Almighty Lord.

P: *Holy art Thou, O Immortal Lord.

C: *O Thou, that was crucified for us † have mercy upon us.

(Above repeated thrice)*

P: O Lord, have mercy upon us.

C: O Lord, have compassion and mercy upon us.

P: O Lord, accept our prayers and worship and have mercy upon us.

C: Glory be to You, O God.

P: Glory be to You, O Creator of all.

C: Glory be to You, O King the Messiah, for You have compassion on your sinful servants.

P: Our Father who art in heaven:

C: Hallowed be Thy name. Thy kingdom come. Thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. Forgive us our sins as we forgive those who sin against us. Lead us not into temptation, but deliver from us from evil. For Thine is the kingdom, the power and glory, forever and ever. Amen.

P: O Lord, make us worthy of eternal joy in Your presence. May our joy and happiness begin and end in you. Let our bodies and soul rejoice in You. Dispel our sorrows by Your mercy and increase our virtues by Your grace. Enrich our lives with your blessings and grant fulfillment to our bride and bridegroom. Help us to rejoice with You in unfading joy with all the saints who have pleased You from the beginning, with the multitude of Your holy ones and in the assembly of those whom You love. To You, O Father, Son, and Holy Spirit, we offer praise and glory forever and ever.

C: Amen

Blessed is He who causes the inhabitants of heaven to rejoice and satisfies those who are on earth. O Christ, full of grace, make the assembly of those who worship You rejoice. O our Savior, stretch forth Your right hand and bless, by Your grace, the rings which the priest gives in Your holy name. The holy Church was betrothed to the Messiah by a ring, which is the taking upon him of flesh and blood. Adoration to the Father, Son and the Holy Spirit, the mysterious Trinity, who is worshipped and praised by the inhabitants of heaven and earth.

P: O Lord, our God, may Your peace that reconciled heaven and earth, depth and height, unite these our brother and sister in the bond of marriage. O God, Father, Son, and the Holy Spirit, grant them perfect unity that they may love and accept each other with you, all the days of their life.

HOOTHAMA

P: Dearly beloved, we have a custom received from our holy Fathers and entrusted to us by our revered predecessors of exhorting the believers as we are all assembled in the house of God. We must firmly bid these persons (Groom and Bride) standing before us that they should be diligent in truth and justice and zealous in all good works.

Now our children, remember that you stand before God's holy altar, before the throne of our Lord Jesus Christ and His holy table, before the Cross, before the holy Gospel, before the congregation, and in the presence of God who knows the thoughts of every heart. From this time onwards, we have united you to each other. May God be the judge between you and me. I shall be free from blame for anything you do contrary to the divine law.

of Egypt, bless you and this congregation. Let us offer praise to the Lord of heaven and earth, now and forever more.

BLESSING OF THE MINNU AND MANTHRAKODI

[This is an ancient tradition, symbolizing mutual trust, love and commitment. The bridegroom ties the Minnu around the bride's neck. The seven threads for the Minnu are taken from the Manthrakodi, the bride's traditional wedding garment (presented by the bridegroom). While the Minnu is being tied and the Manthrakodi is placed on the head of the bride, the following song is sung.]

PROMEON (Preface)

P: Let us pray to the Lord for His grace and mercy.

C: Merciful Lord, have mercy and help us.

P: Help us, O Lord continually to offer to you praise, adoration, worship, thanksgiving and glory.

O Lord Messiah, Heavenly Bridegroom, You have chosen the daughter of the Gentiles as Your Church and cleansed her from all defilement and transgression by Your innocent and holy blood. You offered Yourself as the Bridegroom and betrothed Yourself to the earth-born Church, having redeemed her from the bondage of all unclean spirits and set her free from all debts and sin. As we bless the rings of these Your servants, we acknowledge that you are worthy of praise and honor and worship, now and all the days of our life. Amen.

SEDRA (Series of Prayers)

P: O Lord God, who is glorious beyond all human understanding, ever abundant in blessings and high above all evil, source of all divine grace and giver of all goodness, You are the holy and eternal oil with which we are anointed, free from all suffering and death. You have ordained that, with the ring, the joy of men and women should be perfected and the happiness of those who are betrothed should be completed. Lord God, bless these rings and with them turn what is accursed into a blessing. O Lord, by your divine blessing, bless these rings even as you blessed the ring of your holy Church. May this bridegroom, our son, and this bride, our daughter be filled and perfected in wisdom. Grant, O Lord, that by your grace their marriage may be free from all defilement and hateful things. Grant them abiding joy in this world and in the world to come. O Lord God, adorn them in every way through their life in this transitory world. May they be joyously drawn closer to your heavenly dwelling where all your angels and archangels rejoice without ceasing. Lord, by your love, free this congregation from sin, hatred, defilement and error. May they be blessed and standing in your presence glorify and praise you - Father, Son and Holy Spirit, now and forever.

C: Amen.

P: O true Bridegroom, you who choose pure and virgin souls for your wedding, grant that these two, who have agreed to be joined in marriage and have accepted you as the mediator of their marriage through us your humble servants who stand in your presence, may spread the sweet fragrance of virtuous deeds. Enable them to cultivate true love, concord, peace and inseparable unity between them. Strengthen them to enable each other to maintain purity of body and spirit. Help them to offer to you O Father, and to the Son and to the Holy Spirit, praise and glory now and forever.

C: Amen.

BLESSING OF THE RINGS

P: Eternal praise be to God, the Father, Son and Holy Spirit, who graciously and abundantly blesses these rings.

C: Amen.

P: These rings are blessed in the name of the Father ✠ and of the Son ✠ and of the Holy Spirit ✠ for the fulfillment of joy of the children of the Holy Church.

The Priest puts one of the rings of the fourth finger of the right hand of the bridegroom and says

P: May our Lord Jesus Christ graciously stretch out His right hand to you. With this ring, which is the token of your betrothal, may you obtain from Him grace, mercy and blessings. May blessings and goodness from the hand of Christ remain with you and protect you throughout your life.

Bridegroom and Congregation: Amen.

The Priest puts one of the rings on the fourth finger of the right hand of the bride and says

P: May our Lord Jesus Christ mystically stretch out His hand to you. Accept this ring from the hand of the Bishop/ minister as from the hand of the holy Apostles, as a sign of your betrothal. With peace

PRAYER FOR THE BRIDE AND BRIDEGROOM

P: May the Lord God, who through His Messiah fulfilled the joy of the holy Church, perfect with truth and goodness these our children who have come together to be married. May they receive heavenly blessing along with these rings. Clothe them with humility. Perfect their marriage with the rings of righteousness, as the marriage of Isaac and Rebecca was confirmed through gold ornaments. Cause the bridegroom to rejoice in his salvation and adorn the bride with treasures that do not grow old and perish. May God enable them always to maintain a good conscience, with gentleness more fragrant than roses. May God save them from the wicked and envious who pervert the human race and from the evil-minded who corrupt the purity of wedded life. May the Lord bestow upon them times of well being and years of blessedness.

O Lord God, hear the prayers of us Your weak and sinful servants who stand before Your glorious presence and grant to this couple happy days and the blessings of children. Enrich them with the wealth of virtuous deeds. Confirm them in true faith in You. Give them the grace to remain firm in that faith and to impart it to their children. Confer Your goodness and benefits on all those who have come prepared for this wedding feast. Perfect the bride and bridegroom with Your victorious Cross. Shower blessings upon us all, O God, Father, Son and Holy Spirit, now and forever.

I am the Church and bride of the Most High, says the Church, and I am blessed because he has married me. I worship the Bridegroom who came and espoused me. All creation rejoices, for in my poverty I was made rich on the day he betrothed himself to me. I am blessed for he has prepared for me the bridal chamber above where with my friends I enter and remain. It is happiness to glorify Him who took me from the house of idols, taught me hidden mysteries, and promised to be with me to the end of the world. I worship the King's Son, because He has given me all the blessings, which He brought from His Father's house. Woe to the wicked one who deceived me and led me to idolatry. Glory be to Jesus who saved me. I am blessed because He has armed me with spiritual armor through the water of Baptism, and made me worthy to wear on my finger the rings of his holy Body and Blood. The holy Church declared that the bridegroom is like the sun, the bride the day, and those who are hidden a fragrant tree.
