BRIDEGROOM MATINS

BRIDEGROOM MATINS

Bridegroom Matins is a service specific to the first four evenings of Holy Week and commemorates the last days in the earthly life of the Lord. Incorporated into these services is the theme of the first three days of Holy Week especially including the last teachings of Christ to his disciples.

Christ the Bridegroom is the central figure in the parable of the ten Virgins (Matthew 25: 1-13); Christ is the divine Bridegroom of the Church as described in the Book of Isaiah (chapter 54), as well as the primary image of Bridegroom Matins. The title is suggestive of his divine presence and watchfulness ("Behold the Bridegroom comes in the middle of the night...") during Holy Week and his selfless love for his Bride, the Church. The Christ of the Passion is the divine Bridegroom of the Church. The imagery connotes the final union of the Lover and the beloved. The title Bridegroom also suggests the Parousia. In the patristic tradition, the aforementioned parable is related to the Second Coming; and is associated with the need for spiritual vigilance and preparedness, by which we are enabled to keep the divine commandments and receive the blessings of the age to come.

The mood of the services is to experience sorrow and to feel Christ's voluntary submission to identify with His passions and reminds the responsibility of the Christians to become partakers in His redeeming work. The main emphasis of the Bridegroom Service is metanoia and each service has its own particular theme on repentance and watchfulness.

Palm Sunday Evening

During Palm Sunday Evening service, emphasis is on the picture of Christ as the coming of the Son of God to propose to the Gentile Bride - the Church. Christ is depicted in his triumphal entry as the Son of Man coming to propose and buy back mankind with his blood - the bride price. The Thursday evening brings in the climax where the cup of salvation is left on the table at the Passover meal - the last supper - on for anyone who would willingly be part of his Bride. This was the traditional mode of proposal in the Jewish tradition.
Holy Monday evening

On Holy Monday, Joseph, the son of Jacob the Patriarch, is commemorated and is portrayed as a prototype of Christ. Joseph was betrayed by his brothers, thrown into a pit and sold into slavery by them. In the same way, the Lord was rejected, betrayed by his own, and sold into the slavery of death and like Joseph forgave and spared his brothers during the famine when they came to him, so too, Jesus Christ offers himself as a sacrifice and forgives all those who come to him in faith.

The Gospel reading for the day is of the Barren Fig Tree, which Christ cursed and withered because it bore no fruit. The fig tree is representative of those who have heard God's word, but who fail to bear the fruits of faith. Originally the withering of the fig tree was a testimony against those Jews who rejected God's word and his Messiah. It is also a warning to all people, in all times, of the importance of not only hearing the God's word, but putting it into action.

Holy Tuesday evening

On Holy Tuesday, the Parable of the Ten Virgins is read. It tells the story of the five virgins who filled their lamps in preparation for receiving the bridegroom while the other five allowed their lamps to go out and hence were shut out of the marriage feast. This parable is a warning that Christians must always be prepared to receive the Lord when he comes again.

Holy Wednesday evening

Wednesday before Easter is sometimes known as "Spy Wednesday", as a reference to the betrayal of Jesus by Judas Iscariot, indicating that it is the day that Judas Iscariot first conspired with the Sanhedrin to betray Jesus for thirty silver coins.
CHRIST THE PASSOVER SYMBOLISM

Exodus 12

The symbolism of the Sacrifice of Jesus to that of the Sacrifice of the Passover lamb so that all those who took refuge under the blood of the lamb was passed over by the angel of death is clear. The entry of Jesus was at the same time prescribed for the lambs to be brought into the city and was through the same gate. Jesus probably followed the sacrificial lambs on the colt. The lamb was chosen on the 10th of Nissan. Just as the lamb was to be kept close to the family within their homes, Jesus was in the open with the people in Jerusalem, before he was taken for sacrifice. Then on the 14th day of Nissan the Lamb was slaughtered and its blood was put on the lintels.

Lords Prayer
L: Our Father in heaven..
P: Hallowed be Thy Name, Thy kingdom come, Thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us today our daily bread. Forgive us our trespasses as we forgive those who trespass against us. Save us from the time of trial, and deliver us from evil. For Thine is the kingdom, the power, and the glory, for ever and ever. Amen

L. O Lord Our God, make us worthy to be delivered from our death through your death. Help us to suffer with you in your suffering for us. Help us to be like you in your humiliation for us. Help us to glorify in your cross and to be healed by your strips. Our Lord God, Help us to rejoice in your resurrection that change our sorrows to happiness.

P. Amen

Psalm of Confession
Psalms 51
L: Have mercy on me O God, according to Your steadfast love; according to your abundant mercy blot out my transgressions.
P: Wash me thoroughly from my iniquity, and cleanse me from my sin!
L: For I know my transgressions and my sin is ever before me.
P: Against You, You only have I sinned, and done that which is evil in Your sight.
L: Purge me with hyssop, and I shall be clean; wash me, and I shall be whiter than snow.
P: Hide Your face from my sins, and blot out all my iniquities.
L: Create in me a clean heart O God, and put a new and right spirit within me
P: Cast me not away from Your presence, and take not Your Holy Spirit from me.
L: Restore to me the joy of your salvation, and uphold me with a willing spirit.
P: O Lord, open my lips, and my mouth shall show forth Your praise.
L: Glory be to the Father, to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit.
P: As it was in the beginning, is now and ever shall be world without end. Amen.

ENIYANA
L. The one who of His own will came for suffering and saved the world through your cross.
BRIDEGROOM MATINS

O Lord…
P. Have Mercy on us.
L. He who fulfilled mysteries, examples and parables in himself. O Lord…
P. Have Mercy on us.
L. The one who revealed early His suffering in Jerusalem to the disciples. O Lord…
P. Have Mercy on us.
L. The one who is Lord of all, by His own will chose to become human. O Lord…
P. Have Mercy on us.
L. O Lord who became the sacrifice of justice and reconciled the world with the Father. O Lord…
P. Have Mercy on us.

Psalms

L. I look to the heaven call upon you, answer unto me, O Lord

P. O Lord, I am crying unto you. I proclaimed that you are my hope and inheritance in the land of the living.

L. Your Word is a lamp unto my feet and a light unto my path. I have promised in Your name that I will obey your decrees.

P. Lord, I have humbled myself. Make me come alive according to Your promises. Lord, please favor the words of my mouth and teach me your righteousness.

L. All nations! Praise the Lord for His grace has strengthened us. He is truly our Lord forever.

BRIDEGROOM MATINS

P.  As it was in the beginning, so now, and for ever more. Amen.

PROMEON

L.  Let us pray to the Lord for His grace and Mercy
P.  Merciful Lord have mercy and bless us.
L.  Help us O Lord continually to offer to you our praise, honor, glory and majesty.
L.  We give praise, honor and glory to the God who is omnipotent but incarnated as man of His Own will to redeem us from death and suffering. Through his suffering he tore up our condemnation and purchased a life without suffering for us and reconciled us with the heavenly hosts. You are worthy of praise adoration during this time of prayerful worship and all the days of our lives
P.  Amen.

Sedera

O Lord who is abound in love, and who died and suffered for your people, we your people proclaim with joy and gladness.
O Holy passion, come in peace, the one who redeemed us from our sinful thoughts.
O Holy passion, come in peace, the one who redeemed us and saved us. O Holy passion, come in peace, the one who opened the treasures of spiritual wealth.
O Holy and saving passion, come in peace, who cleansed our filth and made us holy and guided us in the righteous path.
O Holy passion, who became the weapon for our salvation and treasure of holiness, come in peace.
O Holy and redeeming passion, who destroyed the plans of Satan, and paid the ransom for us, come in peace.
O Holy and redeeming passion, who is celebrated as King by all nations, come in peace.
O Holy and saving passion, who healed our pains and deceases, and rescued us from the turmoil of sin to a safe shore of peace, come in peace.
O Holy and redeeming passion, who reconciled the whole creation with the father, come in peace.
O Holy and saving passion, who gave us equal place with the heavenly hosts, come in peace.

O Jesus Christ, who by His own will choose to suffer for us, we pray: Make us worthy to bear insult by partaking in your suffering and celebrate victory in your crucifixion and to be worthy to be with you in your wedding feast and to enter the bridal chamber.

We give Glory and honor to you and your Father and to the Holy Spirit.

P.  Amen

Gospel Reading Mat. 21: 17-22

Nicene Creed

L: Let us affirm our faith in the Nicene Creed:
P: We believe in the one true God, the Father Almighty.

Maker of heaven and earth
and of all things visible and invisible.
We believe in one Lord Jesus Christ,
the only begotten son of God, begotten of the father before all world, Light of Light, very God of very God, begotten not made, being of one substance with the Father, by whom all things were made, who for us men and for our salvation came down from heaven and was incarnate by the Holy Spirit of the virgin Mary, and was made man. He was crucified also for us in the days of Pontius Pilate, suffered and died and was buried. The third day he rose again, ascended into heaven and sits at the right hand of the father. He will come again with glory to judge both the living and the dead and of his Kingdom there will be no end.

We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord and giver of life, who proceeds from the Father, who with the Father and the Son together is worshiped and glorified, who spoke by the prophets and apostles.

We believe in one Holy, catholic and apostolic Church; we acknowledge one baptism for the remission of sins and look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the new life of the world to come. Amen.

Sermon

Hoothama

Closing Prayer

L: O Lord, our God glory be to You, for ever glory be to You. O Lord Christ, in Your compassion and abundant grace, hear our prayers and accept our worship. O Lord God, help us to be eternally cleansed. O Lord may our service be honorable, our worship pleasing, and our petitions acceptable. O Lord, may Your blessings, mercies, help and all your divine gifts come on us and dwell among us forever.

P: Amen

Benediction

L: The peace of God, which passes all understanding keep your hearts and minds in the knowledge and love of the triune God, the Father, Son and Holy Spirit, be with you, among you, protect you from all harm, and make you worthy of His gifts.

P: Amen
