(EASTER WORSHIP)

L: This is the night in which our Lord Jesus Christ passed over from death to life.
The Church invites her members, dispersed throughout the world, to gather in vigil and prayer.
For this is the Passover of the Lord, in which through word and sacrament we share in his victory over death.

As we await the risen Christ, let us hear the record of God's saving deeds in history, recalling how he saved his people in ages past and in the fullness of time sent his Son to be our Redeemer.

Let us pray that through this Easter celebration God may bring to perfection in each of us the saving work he has begun.

when Christ, the true Lamb of God, is slain
whose blood consecrates the homes of all the faithful.

Grant, Lord,
that we who are baptized into the death
of your Son our Saviour Jesus Christ
may continually put to death our evil desires
and be buried with him;

who died and was buried and rose again for us,
your Son Jesus Christ our Lord.

L: Almighty God,
You have made us for yourself,

whose Holy Spirit wells up within your Church:
by the Spirit's gifts equip us to live the gospel of Christ and make us eager to do your will,
that we may share with the whole creation the joys of eternal life;
through Jesus Christ your Son our Lord,
;who is alive and reigns with you,
in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
one God, now and for ever].

who through the mighty resurrection of your Son

to make all things new in him:
grant that we, being dead to sin
and alive to you in Jesus Christ,
may reign with him in glory;
to whom with you and the Holy Spirit
be praise and honour, glory and might,
now and in all eternity.

All Amen

P: Merciful Lord, bless us and have mercy on us.

L: Help us O Lord, to eternally offer praise and thanksgiving. O Lord, You accepted death in flesh to give life to us who are destined for eternal death; You are the life giver even though You remained with the dead; O Lord, You plundered the strong fortress of death; You enslaved the powers that enslaved mankind and freed the human race; O Lord, You rose from the dead as the first born who attained freedom from destruction; O Lord You saved mankind from eternal destruction, to You who is resurrection and life, belong honor, glory and worship at this time of service and all the days of our lives forever and ever...

P: Amen.

Sedra

L: While You are ever-living, and giver of life, Your love brought You down to bear death on the cross, chose to be in the tomb to release us from the depths of dungeon. O Lord, our Messiah, You came down to a human death. You looked upon us in mercy and gave life to us who suffered death and destruction. On this day, while we commemorate your resurrection, we thank You and praise you for all the mercy that You offered to us. Lord you gave your life for us; remained among the dead for three days; You have destroyed the cruel death and freed the slaves of this world. O Lord, You rose up without seeing decay of this world and allowed us to rise with You. Your redemption brought peace to the separation that the devil brought forth between God the Father and the human race. O Lord, You reconciled the gap between the heavenly and the earthly; the blood and the water that drained from Your pierced side eternally diffused the great snake's venom. The life, from Your shed blood, promised eternal life and eternal kingdom to mankind. Your resurrection renewed and gave life to us, the children of Adam that You made in Your own image. Your victory brought joy to the heavenly and exuberance to the earthly. On the day of Your resurrection, the celestial came down to honor you, the angels came down to Your tomb, and the celestial reconciled with the people below in glory. The celestial joined mankind and sang in harmony. We join the godly singer, David, in singing aloud, "Behold, this is the day the Lord hath made." Come, let us join together to participate in this joy. This is the great festival of joy. Today, the angels deliver the message of joy to mankind. Today the crucifiers are lamenting, but the disciples are rejoicing; the crucifiers are in sorrow but the holy church is joyfully celebrating. Today we have hope of eternal life. The one who was counted among the dead, awakened the dead on His command, and delighted His creation.

O Lord, on this day you rose up from the dead, we plead that you accept the prayers and petitions of your sinful and unworthy people, and grant us pardon for our mistakes and forgiveness for our sins. In the abundance of your blessing, we pray that you cure the sick, offer comfort for the lamenting, provide satisfying meals for the hungry, joy of salvation for everyone, peace and reconciliation for the furious and wrathful, offer relief for the frightened, maturity for the youth, comfort for the old, integrity for the married, will power for the celibates, generosity for the affluent, help for the orphans and widows, and a spirit of justice for the powerful. We pray for obedience of the soldiers, wisdom for the bishops, noble character for the clergy, purity of life for the deacons, forgiveness for the sinners, and reprieve for the wronged. We pray that You offer everlasting peace and harmony to all the children of the church. O Lord, make us worthy to join the company of angels, disciples, and women who glorified You at the tomb and help us to greet You in spotless garment on the great day of Your second coming. We offer praise and honor to You, Father and the Holy Spirit, now and for evermore...

P: Amen.

Affirmation

What a strange paradox; the King is coming, the people rejoice, singing 'Hosanna in the highest!' yet fail to understand that the King they welcome is the Servant King, the King who washes his disciples' feet, the King who came not with an army but a weapon so powerful that not even death could resist, the sacrificial love of God laid out upon a Cross.

Lord God, as we sing our 'Hosannas' today may we remember also that which you were riding toward; the suffering and rejection, pain and humiliation, the cruel Cross. And let us look forward to the joy of Easter Day when you rose from death to reign forever.

Help us, as we daily lay our lives before you, to live the resurrection life that acknowledges Jesus as Lord and King over our lives.

Prayer of St. Hippolytus (AD 190-236)

Christ is Risen: The world below lies desolate

Christ is Risen: The spirits of evil are fallen

Christ is Risen: The angels of God are rejoicing

Christ is Risen: The tombs of the dead are empty

Christ is Risen indeed from the dead,

the first of the sleepers,

Glory and power are his forever and ever

Nisibene Hymn 36:17,18, of St. Ephrem the Syrian

O Jesus, King,
receive my supplication,
and consider my supplication,
as a pledge to You.
For you, O living King,
have gone forth and gone up,
out of Hell,
as Conqueror.

Woe to those who have rejected you;
For, to evil spirits and demons,
You are sorrow,
to Satan and to Death,
You are pain,
To Sin and Hell,
You are mourning.

Yet, joy has come today,
for those who are born anew.
On this great day therefore,
We give great glory to You,
who died and is now alive,
that to all you may give
life and resurrection!

Saint Gregory the Great's Easter Prayer

It is only right,
with all the powers of our heart and mind,
to praise You Father
and Your Only-begotten Son,
Our Lord Jesus Christ:
Dear Father, by Your wondrous condescension of loving-kindness toward us,
Your servants, You gave up Your Son.
Dear Jesus You paid the debt of Adam for us to the Eternal Father by Your Blood poured forth in loving-kindness.
You cleared away the darkness of sin
By Your magnificent and radiant Resurrection,
You broke the bonds of death
and rose from the grave as a Conqueror.
You reconciled heaven and earth.
Our life had no hope of eternal happiness
before You redeemed us.
Your Resurrection has washed away our sins,
restored our innocence and brought us joy.
How inestimable is the tenderness
of Your love!

EASTER PROCLAMATION: THE EXULTET

The "Exultet" is an ancient hymn of the church, an Easter proclamation which recounts the saving acts of God in the Old and New Testaments. Historically, the Exultet was sung only once each year at the beginning of the Paschal (Easter) Vigil Service. That service began on Saturday night in darkness and ended on Easter Sunday morning in the light. (Source Reformed Worship)

Rejoice, heavenly choirs of angels.
Rejoice, all creation around God's throne.

Jesus Christ, our King, is risen!
Sound the trumpet of salvation.

Rejoice, O earth, in shining splendor,
Radiant in the brightness of your King.

Christ has conquered! Glory fills you!
Darkness vanishes for ever.

This is our Passover feast when Christ,
the true Lamb, is slain,
whose blood consecrates
the homes of all believers.

This is the night when you, Lord our God,
first saved our ancestors in the faith;
you delivered the people of Israel
from their slavery
and led them dry-shod through the sea.

This is the night when Christ broke the chains of death
and rose triumphant from the grave.
This is the night truly blessed, when heaven is wedded to earth,
and all creation is reconciled with God.

Therefore, Father, in the joy of this night, receive our sacrifice of praise and thanksgiving.
Let us sing with joy,

joining the mighty chorus
of all God's people!

Hymn: Alleluia! Alleluia!

1 Alleluia, alleluia!
Hearts to heaven and voices raise.
Sing to God a hymn of gladness,
sing to God a hymn of praise.
He who on the cross a victim
for the world's salvation bled,
Jesus Christ, the king of glory,
now is risen from the dead.

2 Alleluia, Christ is risen!
Death at last has met defeat.
See the ancient powers of evil
in confusion and retreat.
Once he died and once was buried;
now he lives forevermore—
Jesus Christ, the world's Redeemer, whom we worship and adore.

3 Christ is risen, Christ and first fruits
of the holy harvest field,
which will all its full abundance
at his second coming yield.
Then the golden ears of harvest
will their heads before him wave, ripened by his glorious sunshine
from the furrows of the grave.

4 Alleluia, alleluia!
Glory be to God on high;
alleluia! to the Savior,
who has won the victory;
alleluia! to the Spirit,
fount of love and sanctity:
alleluia, alleluia!
to the triune Majesty.

How blessed is this day, when earth and heaven are joined and humankind is reconciled to God.
May the light of Jesus shine continually to drive away all darkness. May Christ, the Morning Star who knows no setting, find his light ever burning in our hearts—he who gives his light to all creation, and who lives and reigns for ever and ever. Amen.

(Book of Common Prayer -1979, the Protestant Episcopal Church in the United States of America.)

Blessed are you, Lord God of our salvation,
to you be praise and glory for ever.
As once you ransomed your people from Egypt
and led them to freedom in the promised land, so now you have delivered us from the dominion of darkness
and brought us into the kingdom of your risen Son.
May we, the first fruits of your new creation,
rejoice in this new day you have made,
and praise you for your mighty acts.
Blessed be God, Father, Son and Holy Spirit.
Blessed be God for ever.

All: Alleluia, come Jesus come.

Lord's Prayer

L: Our Father in heaven..

P: Hallowed be Thy Name, Thy kingdom come, Thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us today our daily bread. Forgive us our trespasses as we forgive those who trespass against us. Save us from the time of trial, and deliver us from evil. For Thine is the kingdom, the power, and the glory, forever and ever. Amen

Nicene Creed

L: Let us affirm our faith in the Nicene Creed:

We believe in the one true God, the Father Almighty.

P: Maker of heaven and earth
and of all things visible and invisible.

We believe in one Lord Jesus Christ,
the only begotten son of God, begotten of the father before all world, Light of Light, very God of very God, begotten not made, being of one substance with the Father, by whom all things were made, who for us men and for our salvation came down from heaven and was incarnate by the Holy Spirit of the virgin Mary, and was made man. He was crucified also for us in the days of Pontius Pilate, suffered and died and was buried. The third day he rose again, ascended into heaven and sits at the right hand of the father. He will come again with glory to judge both the living and the dead and of his Kingdom there will be no end.

We believe in the Holy Spirit,
the Lord and giver of life,
who proceeds from the Father,
who with the Father and the Son together is worshiped and glorified,
who spoke by the prophets and apostles.

We believe in one Holy, catholic and apostolic Church;

we acknowledge one baptism for the remission of sins and look forward to

the resurrection of the dead and the new life of the world to come. Amen.

Hoothama
Closing Prayer

L: O Lord, our God glory be to You, for ever glory be to You. O Lord Christ, in Your compassion and abundant grace, hear our prayers and accept our worship. O Lord God, help us to be eternally cleansed. O Lord may our service be honorable, our worship pleasing, and our petitions acceptable. O Lord, may Your blessings, mercies, help and all your divine gifts come on us and dwell among us forever.

P: Amen

Benediction

L: The peace of God, which passes all understanding keep your hearts and minds in the knowledge and love of the triune God, the Father, Son and Holy Spirit, be with you, among you, protect you from all harm, and make you worthy of His gifts.

P: Amen
